TALES OF Two Cities

BIG HUNTERS

Upland has every right to be proud of its two famous hunters, Bob Henderson and Bill Conner. Both of them made a killing in the last few days and both of them are local realtors.

Bill got his deer near the Schulhof ranch in Alta Loma Sunday morning at 9:15, picking off the "venison steak" off the fire-break next to the hills. He and his "friends" are reported to be enjoying the results of his expedition.

As for Bob, he had to go all the way to Nevada to do the job. He and Mrs. Henderson spent two weeks in the ranch area of the state near Pyramid Lake. As we got the story the deer was speeding away when Bob unloaded his cartridges and hit the animal right smack in the rear. The "feast" was held in Nevada with friends, none of the tasty meat finding its way to Upland.

While in Nevada, Bob found enough time from his hunting to visit Old Indian country, scene of many Indian battles back in 1850.

So, if you want any hunting tips, don't read a book. Just consult Bill Conner or Bob Henderson.

A PIE STORY

Charlie Johnson, in case you don't know him, works for a Pomona bakery and is noted for quick and efficient service to all his customers in Ontario and Upland. But the other day he ran into a little difficulty. While unloading some pies to take to a local store, something went wrong and down came five pies—all of them cream—upon the surprised Mr. Johnson. Passersby weren't quite sure where the pies started and our unfortunate pieman began.

JUST FORGOT

Here's one on Ben Adams, manager of the Grove and Upland theaters in Upland.

Last Monday he was very anxious to get to the bank in order to make his deposit of the weekend take. He was so anxious, in fact, that he skipped lunch altogether so he could count the money.

Finally he finished his tabulations and got to the bank, all right. But it was closed . . . you see Monday was Columbus Day.

GOT ATTENTION

A plea by Don Benson, Daily News-Herald sports writer, that more publicity and recognition be given to the Chaffey Panthers in the metropolitan press was mentioned in the L. A. Examiner this morning.

Al Santoro, sports writer of the L. A. sheet, had this comment to make:

"Chaffey J. C. Panthers are crouched and ready to leap into the "Little Rose Bowl" next December, according to the hopes of Don Benson, who writes 'Sport-o-Graphs' in The Daily News-Herald at Upland."

Nice going, Don. Maybe this will start the ball rolling and Chaffey will finally be recognized in Los Angeles.

FINE PROGRAM

A fine program seems to be in store for members of the Chaffey Art association when they hold their annual artists' dinner Saturday night. An unusual number of very fine pictures are also promised for the exhibit which opens Sunday. Association members will get preview of them after the dinner Saturday night.

TICKETS READY

The Upland chamber promises a good and entertaining program for its annual dinner Oct. 21. The speaker, the Rev. Nichols of Santa Ana, who spoke to a joint meeting of the Upland Lions and Rotarians recently, is considered one of the outstanding in the state. Tickets are ready now and may be purchased at the Upland chamber office.

CAN PICK 'EM

We always knew Harold W. Cook, Upland school superintendent, could pick them but we never dreamed he would make the front pages with one of his choices. Maybe Harold is in the wrong business. He might even be the "Earl Carroll" of the Chaffey district.

Association Plan Adopted By Girl Scouts

After many months of discussion and consideration, workers in Girl Scouting in the Chaffey district adopted the association plan of organization at a meeting of the group yesterday.

Under the association plan, as explained by Mrs. Dan Milliken, every adult worker in the Girl Scouts belongs to the council and is thus able to vote on policies and to choose officers and members of the board of directors.

The board of directors chosen by the entire council, will conduct routine business of the council, but will not decide policy, under the association plan. The council will meet three times yearly for programs prepared by a special program committee.

Prepare By-Laws

A committee headed by Mrs. Milliken has been working on the preparation of the by-laws and the adoption of the plan to the Chaffey district's needs ever since the council voted last spring to present the association plan to all Girl Scout workers this fall.

The by-laws, read to the group yesterday by Mrs. Milliken, will be posted in the scout house and will be presented for adoption Jan. 8, the same meeting at which a nominating committee will present a slate of officers.

A newly formed steering committee has been charged with the selection of a slate of officers, and will also be responsible for the placement of volunteers in the various sections of Girl Scout work.

The standing committees will remain as at present, Mrs. Milliken explained, with the chairman responsible to the board of directors.

Delegates

Delegates to the National Girl Scout convention to be held at Long Beach Nov. 4 to 7 were announced at yesterday morning's session. Mrs. J. B. McCarter, commissioner, already listed as a delegate, will be accompanied by Mrs. Frank Phillips, member of the council and former commissioner, and Mrs. Arleigh McConnell, a leader. Alternates will be Mrs. Arthur Shattuck, Mrs. Lewis Ayles and Mrs. Gertrude Quackenbush, all council members.

Although only the delegates may vote, all Girl Scout workers are being urged to attend at least one session of the convention. This is the first time the convention has been held close enough to the local district to enable delegates to attend.

Mrs. Shattuck, a former commissioner and now a regioual officer, presented the convention issues to the council for an expression of opinion.

Firemen Extinguish Five Acre Brushfire

A five-acre brush fire at West Tenth street and the San Antonio Wash was extinguished yesterday afternoon by the San Antonio State Forestry firemen with assistance of the Upland fire department.

Two state pumpers and the Upland pickup were used in combating the blaze which was reported under control two hours after the initial alarm.

OCTOGENARIAN TWINS AIM FOR CENTURY MARK

NATION'S OLDEST TWINS? Mrs. Liah Hale and Mrs. Jane Stanley. Their father lived to be 104 years old

AP Newsfeatures

POUND, Va.—At 87, Jane Mullens Stanley and Mrs. Liah Mullens Hale may be the nation's oldest twin sisters.

The aged mountain women are the daughters of Jack Mullens, a legendary figure known in this Virginia-Kentucky border area as "Brandy Jack", who lived to be 104 years old. Brandy Jack's daughters, both widows, believe they, too, can pass the century mark.

Spry and active, they live on farms a few miles apart. Their years have been marked with little sickness. Mrs. Stanley—"Aunt Jane" to friends and relatives—hardly knows the taste of medicine.

"I never needed it," she said, "because I was never sick, to say really sick, in my life; only a few colds, and they are quite rare."

Mrs. Hale has "nothing whatever to complain about so far as health is concerned." She admits that she has "called in ont doctor in late years," but he indicated "there wasn't much wrong".

In her opinion, "the worst thing in life is being lonely." Since Mrs. Hale's husband died some 12 years ago, she has had little adult company.

Kidnapped Bride Was To Teach In Upland

Mrs. Ruth Joan Radwanski, Glendale church organist, who was kidnapped by a gunman who left her bound and gagged by the side of a San Bernardino road after being forced to accompany him in her car, would have been spared her experience had she followed plans made before her college graduation last spring.

For, until Sept. 15, Mrs. Radwnaski was scheduled to be teacher of choral music for the Upland elementary schools.

Ruth J. Minks, she has since married, was attending Michigan State college last spring when she was hired by Harold Cook, Upland school superintendent, who was in East Lansing, Mich., looking for prospective teachers.

When Cook learned that Miss Minks would be seeking a teaching position upon graduation, he offered her the Upland post and she accepted.

Attends Institute

From Sept. 10 through Sept. 11 she attended the institute held here annually for new Upland teachers. Then, reluctantly, she notified Cook that she and her husband, also a musician, had purchased a home in Glendale and she could not accept the post.

Instead she took a position as organist for Central Methodist church, Glendale, and the chain of events leading to her terrifying experience Tuesday night began.

Mrs. Radwanski, 22, told police her wild experience began when she left the church after choir practice, stepped into her automobile and opened the door when someone tapped on the window.

Slugs Her

She told police and reporters a man with a gun forced his way into the car, took the wheel and slugged her. When she came to they were speeding eastward through the foothill suburbs.

Twenty-one miles beyond San Bernardino, Mrs. Radwanski said, the man pushed her out, bound her feet and hands and gagged her, and then sped away. She freed her hands, untied her feet, flagged a motorist and called for help.

Sheriff James W. Stocker alerted officers along Highway 66, the transcontinental route leading across the Mojave desert to Needles. Mrs. Radwanski's car was spotted going through Victorville. Deputies pursued at

Arrest Pomona Man For Assault

Roland Lee Frank, 20, 2075 San Bernardino road, Pomona, was held in the Upland city jail today on suspicion of assault with attempt to rape of a Pomona woman in an Upland orange grove early this morning.

Upland police were summoned to Eighteenth street and Mountain avenue at 3 a.m. by Mrs. Nita Largent Rath, 542 North Washington street, Pomona, who told them she had broken away from an assailant.

At the scene police found a 1939 coupe with its rear wheels stuck in the soft shoulder of the road. Checking the registration they found it was owned by Irwin Frank of Pomona. A telephone call to Frank's residence brought the information that Roland Lee Frank, brother of the owner, had been driving the car last night.

Pomona police, on a description furnished by the Upland department, picked up Roland Roland Frank as he was preparing to leave town. In his pocket at the time of his arrest was a loaded automatic pistol and 15 extra cartridges.

Mrs. Largent told police that she met him in a Pomona bar when he expressed interest in a horse she had for sale. She said he asked to look at the horse and offered to drive her to its stable but instead took her to the orange grove at Eighteenth and Mountain where he attempted to rape her. In escaping from him, she said, she suffered numerous bruises from blows on her face, and her dress was torn to shreds.

Mrs. Rath appeared in city court today and signed complaints charging Frank with simple assault and assault and battery.

Davis Happy In New Home

"There is no feeling like that of moving into your own home" said Ray Davis this morning after spending the first night in his family's new home presented to him by citizens of Upland in recognition of service in World War II in which he was disabled.

"Of course there are a lot of things left to be done," said Davis, "The yard still has to be cleared and the windows scraped of paint, but the wife and the kids and I were getting impatient and decided to make the move yesterday."

"It was more like camping out than living at home last night because in the excitement yesterday I forgot to ask for the gas to be turned on. But it is a beautiful home and I don't know how to thank the people of Upland for their generosity."

Inaugural Speaker

Gilbert I. Benson, mayor of Ontario, spoke today at ceremonies inaugurating helicopter mail service for the Chaffey district.

City's Greetings Given By Mayor Gilbert Benson

Helicopter mail service between Ontario and surrounding towns was officially inaugurated at 1:20 this afternoon when the green and white Sikorski helicopter dropped easily to the landing field of Ontario International Airport.

Ontario Mayor Gilbert I. Benson, present with City Councilman Joseph Aime to extend the city's official greetings to the service, spoke briefly to the crowd of spectators on hand for the occasion.

Mayor Benson stated that Ontarians should be "especially proud and grateful of the fact that their city was selected as the site for inaugural ceremonies and as the only stopping point for the service in San Bernardino county".

Cut Time

The mayor pointed out that inauguration of the twice-a-day helicopter service will cut mail delivery time from Ontario to some of the cities on the route by as much as 18 hours.

Postmaster Carl Hase, who received the first sack of helicopter mail to be delivered to Ontario, expressed the hope that Ontarians in recognition of their privilege in receiving the service will use it to the best advantage," and commented that speed and efficiency of the step would greatly improve service between Ontario and other mail stops.

Pilot Speaks

The one other speaker, introduced by Albert Holmer, chairman of the Ontario chamber of commerce aviation committee, who served as master of ceremonies, was the pilot of the plane, Boyd Kesselring, who attributed the delay to ceremonies enroute to Ontario.

Kesselring presented a brief, simple explanation of the manner operational principles by which a helicopter operates.

Eight sacks of air mail weighing a total of 41 pounds, only six of which were regular mail, the rest being special "first day covers" mailed by stamp collectors, were loaded on the helicopter by

FBI Agent Praises Upland Police, Asks For Public Help In Crime

The Upland police department came in for high praise yesterday at the Upland Rotary club when Gilbert Stukey, special agent for the FBI, discussed the work of his organization in combatting subversive activities.

"You have an efficient department in Upland and it is a real pleasure to visit there and see not only the efficiency but the courteous manner in which everything is handled," the speaker told Rotarians and their guests.

"It is only by police departments such as you have here that we can curb the crime wave which is rising rapidly everywhere in the country," he declared.

After he had related incidents on the workings of the FBI during the war to trap enemy agents, Mr. Stukey said this was made possible only because of the alertness and cooperation of the American public.

"Today we need that same alertness because there are still those who would like to change our form of government," he stated, asking that anything of a suspicious nature involving the security of our country be reported immediately either to local police or the FBI.

"The more help you can give us the better protection we can give you," he concluded.

E. Tweed Stone, skipper of the Upland Sea Scouts, reported that Richard Hett was attending the maritime academy and doing very well in his studies.

Paul Hottel, president, who was in charge of the meeting, asked that all Upland members who could attend the charter night of the new Rialto club, which will be held tonight at the Rialto Woman's club.

Visiting Rotarians from Ontario included Tex Illingworth, Vern Pittenger, Frank Allen, Ray Newton, Carl Hase, Pat Patterson, Leo Wadsworth, Tony Naetal and E. Miller Dietz. "Cookie" Orsburn, Tiger grid star, was the junior Rotarian for the day.

Mrs. Hawkinson Guest Speaker At Edison School

Members of the Edison school Parent-Teacher association enjoyed this week a very interesting talk given by Mrs. Lily Hawkonson. She spoke on the topic, "Search the Hercules" and outlined vividly her experiences encountered during the summer spent traveling in Europe.

With a vastly rich background of Latin, mythology, art and Biblical literature, Mrs. Hawkinson traveled with an objective of finding and seeing the treasures she knew were in Italy.

The speaker was particularly interested in tracing original references used by Monk Farreous, who 250 years ago wrote the first book on citriculture. Several years have passed since the speaker had completed the translation of this old manuscript which she found in a Jesuit library and this proved her translation of the book to be correct.

Miss Mollie McBride's sixth grade entertained with three songs. This room won the attendance banner and a money prize for the most mothers present. Mrs. Douglas Bowles, association president, presided at a short business session when J. L. White made a plea for additional Boy Scout den mothers. Mrs. David Quackenbush, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Bruce Miller and Miss McBride presided at the tea table which was centered with a magnificent autumn arrangement of fruits and magnolia leaves in palm bark designed by Mrs. F. A. Riddington.

Sixth grade mothers providing tea were the Mesdames Arthur Flum, chairman, and L. E. McCracken, W. A. Schwartz, Homer Myers, F. J. Makler, Joseph Vieira, F. A. Maurer, H. B. Van Brunt, Nathan Cohn, L. E. Roehrig, Miller and Riddington.

The crowd of spectators who had been waiting since 12:34 p.m. when the plane was scheduled to arrive, were silent as it dropped to the field so leisurely and softly that, to quote a spectator, "It wouldn't have spilled a glass of water".

In addition to Mayor Benson, Councilman Aime and Postmaster Benson other officials on hand included Orton P. Brady, Upland postmaster; Frank Mogle, chairman of the San Bernardino county board of supervisors; Arthur Walker, head of the San Bernardino county chamber of commerce; Russell Eck, head of the Ontario chamber; Mrs. Doris McFerran, Ontario chamber secretary; Jim Corrison, member of the chamber aviation committee, and George Sanford, manager of the airport.

Still Searching For Stop-Gap Aid To Europe

WASHINGTON (Æ) — President Truman said today there still is a possibility he will call a special session of Congress to deal with Europe's financial plight.

The president told his news conference no decision has been made and that the administration is still continuing its search for funds for stop-gap aid to western Europe.

The questions to Mr. Truman were prompted by published reports that officials see fair prospects that emergency help for Europe can be supplied without a special session.

Success

Mr. Truman said administration financial officials have had considerable success in their efforts to develop stop-gap aid.

He cited yesterday's authorization for the army to buy $50,000,000 of French francs.

This transaction will put needed dollars in the hands of the French. The army will use the francs to pay for services the French have given American troops.

French Loans

Mr. Truman also cited efforts by the export-import bank to transfer construction loans for France to a fund which can be used in food and fuel purchases.

The financial agencies are still making other efforts to locate funds he said.

ALERT VAN NUYS CITIZENS CATCH BEAR IN FORAY ON BEE HIVES

VAN NUYS, Calif. (Æ)—A six-foot black bear ambled into the peaceful San Fernando Valley but the alert citizenry quickly met the challenge.

Police Sergt. Walter Phillips said the alarm was set up by Lester Henry, Van Nuys beehive owner who heard the bear making another in a series of forays on his hives and honey.

Two hunters were called from nearby Glendale. They arrived on the scene with six hounds and hunting bows and arrows. Sergt. Phillips reported that the dogs treed the bear some distance from Henry's place and that Jim Stevenson and another hunter, whose name was not learned, killed the marauder with arrows while some 50 persons, who had joined in the hunt, looked on.

MANY DEVELOPMENTS

Arab Nations Challenge Legality Of U.N. Action On Palestine

LAKE SUCCESS (Æ)—Two Arab countries disclosed today that they would challenge formally the legality of any United Nations action on the Palestine problem.

This disclosure came as Britain prepared to emphasize her determination to withdraw from the Holy Land at an early date and leave the problem up to the United Nations.

Other major United Nations developments:

1. Canada formally proposed that the general assembly's 57-nation Palestine committee direct a sub-committee to study ways of implementing the plan to partition the Holy Land into separate Jewish and Arab countries.

2. Poland declared in the 57-nation political committee that Secretary of State Marshall's program to overhaul U. N. Peacekeeping machinery was "contrary to the spirit of the U. N. charter, dangerous and useless." White Russia also joined in the Slav attack on the American proposal. Greece, India and the Netherlands backed the United States "in principle."

Informed quarters said Egypt and Syria would challenge the validity of U. N. action on Palestine in a joint resolution which was said to have the support of all the Arab countries.

Britain, meanwhile, asked to be given priority for her second policy statement, so she would not have to await her turn as seventh on today's speakers list.

Finally, near Amboy, 200 miles from Glendale, the car was found abandoned off the highway. Deputies mounted horses to track their quarry's footsteps through the sand. Strike Ties Up French Ports

PARIS (Æ)—A strike of 40,000 merchant seamen and shore workers for wage increases halted virtually all shipping in French ports today as the government strove desperately to cope with Paris' crippling transport strike.

A tenth of Paris' subway workers, represented by two independent unions, voted to end their three-day strike, despite the appeals of the communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGT) to stand firm. The CGT controls the key personnel and could halt efforts for a partial restoration of service.

In most ports, French and foreign vessels were forced to dock without the aid of tugs. U. S. lines officials in Le Havre negotiated for special consideration for the luxury liner America, due at that channel port tomorrow.

Nine vessels were blocked in Bordeaux and four at Le Havre by the strike, in which seamen seek 15 percent wage increases. A number of other vessels were caught at Marseille, Cherbourg and other ports.

FINED $2,500

LOS ANGELES (Æ)—Dr. Theodore J. Niemeyer, operator of a Santa Monica animal hospital, was fined $2,500 by U. S. Judge J. F. T. O'Connor on evasion of income tax charges.

POMONA COLLEGE NOTES SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

CLAREMONT (Æ) — Pomona college celebrated its 60th anniversary today by conferring an honorary Doctor of Science degree on Dr. Frank P. Brackett, last surviving member of the original college faculty.

Dr. Brackett, now professor emeritus of astronomy, joined the college staff in 1888 and retired in 1933. Dr. Alva R. Davis, newly appointed dean of arts and letters at the University of California, and a former student under Dr. Brackett, was convocation speaker.

Re-Elect Green AFL President

SAN FRANCISCO (Æ)—Seventy-four year old William Green was re-elected unanimously as president of the American Federation of Labor today at a convention session notable because of the absence of John L. Lewis and all officers of his United Mine workers.

It was Lewis' privilege to nominate Green because Green himself is a member of the UMW. Lewis clashed fiercely with the AFL leadership in the last two days and refused to continue serving as a member of the executive council.

Hold War Bride For Slaying

REDWOOD CITY (Æ)—A 20-year-old Polish war bride who had left her husband in Montana was held for investigation today in the slaying of a Palo Alto man in whose car she was riding early early Wednesday morning.

The victim of the fatal shooting was George W. Conner, 25, father of three small children. Held was Mrs. Jadwiga Czacek Curtin, who told district attorney's investigator Frank Marlowe:

"We met in a bar. He forced me into his car. He drove like a Nazi. He grabbed the gun I had. I got it back from him. He grabbed at it again. It must have gone off."

Said the dead man's widow: "I've been expecting it. I filed suit for divorce last week; he was to have been served today. Maybe it's just as well."

The two women met, for a moment, in the sheriff's office here—silently. Then Mrs. Connor turned away. "After seeing her, I don't feel sorry for her," she said.

Mrs. Curtin shrugged, and told a deputy sheriff: "His wife not mad."

JACKSON, Miss. (Æ)—George W. Conner, 25-year-old former army sergeant who was slain yesterday in California, was a cousin of former Governor Mike Connor of Mississippi.

Helicopter Service Beginning Of New Mail Era Here

It was an historic event at the International Airport in Ontario this morning when helicopter mail service was inaugurated.

For years there has been conjecture as to what the future of aviation would hold. Start of this hop, skip and hop mail service is another development of one phase of this modern speed age. Whether or not helicopter mail service is practical is yet to be determined. Some changes may be made in the present system but very likely air-minded engineers and progressive postmasters will produce a streamlined system that will get mail to us almost before the ink is dry.

The value of a large airport is indicated by today's development. Ontario citizens are responsible for creation of the airport and the helicopter service is one of several activities that is bringing the community wide attention—and additional revenue.

Selection of Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers as the outstanding rookie of the year by the St. Louis Sporting News has met with wide approval. And rightly so.

As the first colored man to play in the major league in modern times, Robinson had a lot more to contend with in the way of mental hazards than any other rookie probably ever faced. He didn't know how the fans would receive him or what the attitude of his teammates or the players on other clubs would be. Probably the nicest compliment paid him came from his manager, Burt Shotten, who was once asked if Jackie was a real big leaguer. If he isn't, Shotten replied, there are not any big leaguers.

Robinson is a credit to his team, to baseball, and to his race.

Mackenzie's Column

By DeWitt Mackenzie

Anxious inquiries are coming to this column from folk who want to know what has happened to the ideal of "one world"—whether the drift toward "two worlds" means that "one world" is out.

Apropos of this general thought, we have some searching current observations from two of the most widely known statesmen of the day—former U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes and Britain's war-time Prime Minister, Winston Churchill. Few were privileged to know as much about the relations of the big three (America, Britain and Russia) during the last conflict.

Byrnes states in connection with his new book "Speaking Frankly" that "there is room in the world for the ideologies of Russia and the United States just as there is room for the people of the Soviet and the United States. The U.N. is our best—if not our only—hope for reconciling the differences that exist between us."

Churchill expresses the view that the Soviet Union and its satellites may quit the United Nations organization. Then, he says, "there would be what is called two worlds, and we should be sorry to see that. But if one of these worlds (the democracies) is far more powerful than the other (the communists) and is equally vigilant, and is also sincerely desirous of maintaining peace, there is no reason why a two world system should lead to war. Great wars come when both sides believe they are more or less equal, and when each thinks he has a good chance of victory."

Both statesmen subscribe to the thesis that the democracies, while seeking peace, should keep their powder dry and be firm. Each recognizes the possibility of there being "two worlds" and not one.

As a matter of fact we have "two worlds" already, so that our inquiry resolves itself into whether there is any hope of achieving "one world." We can say right at the start that there is no possibility of reconciling totalitarian communism and democracy. The two are as far apart as the poles. Therefore we seem to face the startling theory that a completely unified world could be achieved only when one or the other had been found wanting and had died a natural death.

The small countries of eastern Europe which are under Red domination have been communized by force. Ever yone of these peoples is liberty loving and has fought for freedom more than once through the centuries. And the logical conclusion would seem to be that either communism will purge itself of totalitarianism and adopt democracy, or the police-ruled peoples will in due course take the matter into their own hands.

So there is no need to despair of achieving a peaceful "one world," though it won't come tomorrow.

KNOW THE NEW TRAFFIC LAWS

The new law makes the driver of a motor vehicle as well as the passenger concerned responsible if he knowingly permits passengers to ride upon any portion of a vehicle not intended for them. Under the old law, the passenger alone was responsible.

Grow Bumper Crops In Blasted Nagasaki

TOKYO (AP)—Summer crops in atom-bombed Nagasaki have shown increases of from 50 to 300 per cent over the normal yield, Takeo Furuno, Nagasaki prefectural expert, told Kyodo news agency.

He said increased output, with some freak developments, was noted in all food plants except dry rice and lentils, which had not matured.

Testing Chamber Will Give Sample Of Stratosphere

AP Newsfeatures

LONDON—Britain is building the world's largest stratosphere chamber, capable of reproducing pressure and temperature found up to 70,000 feet.

A cylinder measuring 25 feet in diameter by 50 feet long, it will test the pressure cabin of an aircraft in conditions likely to be encountered in flight. Behavior of aircraft structures, controls and engines will be observed.

The chamber, built at Vickers-Armstrongs naval yard at Barrow-in-Furness, is being erected at the Weybridge works of Vickers-Admsarongs, Ltd.

A vacuum pump will reduce the pressure to one-twentieth of an atmosphere in 90 minutes. At the beginning of the 90 minutes the evacuation rate is equal to an aircraft's rate of climb of 1,000 feet a minute.

HAVE REASONS

Union Leaders In No Hurry To Take 'I'm-Not-A-Communist' Oath

BY JAMES MARLOW

BOSTON (AP)—There's no rush among CIO union leaders to take the I'm-not-a-communist oath under the new labor law.

Most of the CIO union officers are not communists. One of them, explaining his reason for not taking the oath, at least right away, told this writer:

"I'll take the oath any day saying I'm a good citizen. But the I'm-Not-a-Communist oath means I'd be swearing I'm not a bad citiezn. That's insulting.

While that was being said at the CIO convention here, at the AFL convention in San Francisco John L. Lewis, boss of the coal miners, was saying almost the same thing:

"It is not necessary for me to say I'm not a communist. I was fighting communism in America before many people in this country knew what Communism stood for."

That is not the only reason why Lewis or other union leaders are going to take their time about swearing the oath or not swearing at all.

Lewis is bitter against the new labor law, the Taft-Hartley Act. So is the CIO as an organization. And AFL leaders have denounced it too.

They want the law wiped off the books and they don't want to do any more than they have to to make it work.

Taking the oath would be one of the things that would help make it work. And it comes down to this:

The big, strong unions—like Lewis' coal miners and the CIO's steelworkers—may be able to get by all right without doing anything to help the new law work.

Weaker unions, whether they like it or not and in order to survive, may have to go along with the law.

And for this reason: under the law unions are given some protection against employers who want to hurt or wreck a union.

And, to get that protection, unions must do certain things under the law. One of them requires a union's officers to swear they're not Communists.

(By this provision in the law Congress hoped to drive communists out of control in labor unions. Since Communists, who are union officers, can't take the oath, their union gets no protection under the law.)

Gold Shipments Total 5 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia shipped $5,624,286 worth of gold to this country during the week ended Sept. 24, the Commerce department reported.

That was more than one-third of the $14,147,615 of gold sold to the United States by all foreign countries that week. South Africa, with $7,877,418, was the only country to top Russia for the week.

It was the second consecutive week in which the Soviet sold gold to the United States after selling none in the preceding months of 1947.

The Russian gold sales presumably were in part payment of the $58,700,000 trade deficit it had with the U. S. in the first half of 1947, when it bought $91,200,000 in United States goods while selling the United States $32,500,000 worth of Russian goods.

Filed Damage Suit Against Actress

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A civil for $65,732 damages was on file today against actress Madge Meredith, 26, and three men, all awaiting trial on criminal charges of kidnapping, assault and robbery.

The men are James A. Hatfield, 33; Albert W. Tucker, 29, and Damon W. Klinkenberger, 32. The state accused them with Miss Meredith of taking Nicholas Dan Gianoclis, 38, her former manager, and a companion, Verne V. Davis, 32, on an automobile ride, beating them and holding them prisoners for several hours June 30. All four pleaded innocent.

Planes Sent To Rescue Congressmen Unable To Land

ATHENS (AP)—Representatives Alin Teague (D-Tex.) and Donald Jackson (R-Calif.), who were fired upon by mortars two days ago near the junction of the Greek, Bulgarian and Yugoslav borders, now are stranded in a village near the Bulgarian frontier 30 miles north of Alexandroupolis because of destruction of two bridges.

On The Record

Soviet leaders repeatedly have attacked the American "capitalist" press for "slandering" the Soviet Union. The charge was repeated by Mr. Molotov in the exchange of letters with the American ambassador to Moscow, Walter Bedell Smith, occasioned by Mr. Smith's official protest against a personal attack on President Truman in the Soviet "Literary Gazette."

Mr. Molotov replied that the Soviet government "cannot take the responsibility for this or that article," and that "from day to day the American press inserts lying and slanderous articles regarding the U.S.S.R. and . . . . inflames hostility between peoples."

Mr. Molotov's statement that the Soviet government cannot take responsibility for its press is simply not true. The Soviet government repeatedly purges writers who fail to express the "correct" viewpoint.

The second charge amounts to saying "If American papers slander us, we shall slander you"—which is childish.

But Mr. Molotov repeated that the Soviet press attaches "special significance to the strengthening of friendly relations between peoples."

If it does, it is taking a strange way of going about it.

For nothing written by anti-Soviet writers in America has so alienated American opinion from the hope of better relations with the Soviets as has the recent press campaign against the United States, launched by the Soviet government and taken up by every Soviet satellite.

Americans are, by nature, skeptical. They do not believe all they read in the papers. Like all people everywhere, they hate war and sincerely hope for peace. Being suspicious of propaganda, they have tended to doubt the arguments of some American writers regarding hostile Soviet intentions toward the U. S.

But they cannot doubt the hostile intentions of the current claque against the U. S. by Soviet writers reported during the last week and carried in our news columns; especially the summary of the Boris Gorbatov article, likening President Truman to Hitler, ridiculing his clothes, his bow tie, his former occupation as a haberdasher, his "colorless Baptist face", and declaring him "a tool of the Wall street Republicans."

No American believes that when such articles are written—following attacks on Secretary Marshall as a "Shylock from Wall Street"—the Soviets are "attaching special significance to strengthening friendly relations."

There is something funny about proletarian revolutionaries emerging as sartorial experts. Hundreds of thousands of Americans wear bow ties and, therefore, are personally offended. A "Baptist face" is praise, not blame, to the thousands of American Baptists who are thereby also insulted. All Americans engaged in the men's clothing business—and there are many thousands of them, too—are going to take offense at the ridicule of their occupation as fit only for morons.

Lots of Americans care little for Mr. Truman and many, maybe a majority, will vote against him. But Americans do respect the presidency, do not engage in this sort of insult—even in heated campaigns—and if outsiders ridicule our President it makes us hot under the collar.

The Soviets and their fellow-howlers also have managed to lump together for attack such a desperate group of American persons that everybody has someone to defend: John Foster Dulles and Mrs. Roosevelt; William Randolph Hearst and Walter Winchell—whom Mr. Vishinsky's press conference somehow elevated to a par with the secretary of state.

Whatever Americans think of Secretary Marshall, no American thinks he is a "Shylock from Wall Street." Americans are pretty sick anyhow of being called "Shylocks," particularly by countries to whom they have given—for free—billions of dollars' worth of goods.

If there's any sense in the Soviet campaign, its object must be to make us disgustedly isolationist—and leave the world to the Soviets. But I don't think we should answer. Let our actions—rather—speak for us, while we recall an old American gag about the kind of contest one never should engage in with a certain kind of better equipped animal.

Invention Sheds Light On Watches

AP Newsfeatures

HAGERSTOWN, Md. "Why that is so simple that anyone could have thought of it!" is what most Hagerstown folks said when Sig Smith and Paul Willis invented the "visascope."

Smith, a local watchmaker, conceived the idea that it would be easier to see the little wheels and springs if he had a tiny searchlight shining into the dark crevices of the watch-case.

So he fitted out his monocle—the bell-shaped eye-piece that jewelers use—with its own headlight.

It took Smith and his friend, Willis, almost a year to perfect the idea. In its final form, it has a head-piece so it can be pushed back on the forehead when not in use.

Panthers Poised For Trip North

Following a brisk workout yesterday afternoon Coach Ray Rosso posted the list of 38 Panthers who will make the trip to Berkeley tomorrow for Saturday's game with the California frosh.

Major change in the Panther lineup was the shift of Orland DeCiccio to first-string righthalf from the reserve squad.

Otherwise the Panther starting squad will be the same team that opened last week's game against San Bernardino with Anse McCullough in the quarterback spot as usual.

The squad leaves at 6:30 tomorrow morning and will arrive in San Francisco at 6 p.m. Rosso says he plans to have has charges in bed by 9:30 p.m. although he doubts the boys will sleep too well in the strange surroundings.

Taping will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday and the boys will suit up at 11 o'clock in time to get in their setting up exercises before gametime.

While the panthers are visiting in the bay area, other Orange Empire teams will be playing some important league games.

Fullerton, sore as a bear for the 13-6 plummeling they received Saturday at the hands of Riverside, invades San Bernardino for a battle with the stout-hearted Indians.

In the only other conference mix, the Riversiders will try to add to their laurels, meeting Mt. San Antonio at home.

Santa Ana, who hasn't yet played inside the league, entertain Glendale in their own back yard. The outcome of that one, incidentally, should give local fans a line on what to expect when the Dons drop in at Graber a week hence.

Dana McGaugh of The Daily News-Herald sports staff will be on hand at the University of California stadium Saturday to give readers of this paper an eye-witness account of the Panther-California Frosh contest.

Await Decision On Justice

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The case of Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice was in the hands of Southern conference officials today as the last professional source involved in the incident emphatically declared the triple threat North Carolina back never accepted money from the Philadelphia Eagles of the National football league.

Harry Thayer, general manager of the Los Angeles Dons, of the All-America conference, said yesterday that Justice returned his copy of a contract and an uncashed check for $250 with a note saying he had changed his mind about playing pro ball and intended to enter college.

Thayer, whose Los Angeles team is training in Hershey, Pa., for an eastern tour, was general manager of the Eagles at the time of the Justice incident.

Train Cancelled, They Rent Bus

A busload of 38 ardent Chaffey college students will journey to Berkeley for Saturday morning's game between the Panthers and the University of California's freshmen, due largely to the efforts of three college athletes sidelined because of injuries.

When Chaffey authorities announced cancellation of a proposed special rooters' train coach because only 38 students had signed up for the trip, Roy Gilbert, Don McCullough and Mike Carew got busy.

Signing up the students who had planned to travel by train, the three Chaffey men chartered a bus and made arrangements for college chaperones in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mather.

The group will leave Chaffey college grounds at 6:30 p.m. Friday and travel to Brekeley by way of the inland route.

Following the football game the Chaffey students plan to tour San Francisco and leave the Golden Gate city late Saturday night.

The return trip will be by way of the coast route through Carmel, Monterey and Santa Barbara.

Yesterday afternoon the three trip sponsors announced that all space on the bus had been filled and that there would be no room for more passengers.

Army, Despite Losses, Still East's Best

NEW YORK (AP)—The Army mule ain't what she used to be but when it comes time to hand out the Lambert trophy for eastern gridiron supremacy don't be surprised if a general is on hand to collect the silver.

After three years of Blanchard and Davis, the cadet football team now looks like a wild west movie without shooting. Nevertheless the 1947 Black Knights of the Hudson most likely will take good care of their sectional rivals despite their stuttering backfield.

Army's strength is in the line this year. The Cadets didn't have a powderpuff forward wall last fall either, but the Mules never get much attention when such crowd pleasers as "B" and "D" are around, not to mention Arnold Tucker.

Coach Red Blaik's men, who whipped Villanova and Colorado before the Illinois draw, shouldn't have too much trouble in their next three games. The West Pointers meet Virginia Tech Saturday, Columbia the week after, and then take on Washington and Lee.

Then comes the big one—with Notre Dame.

NOTES FROM THE GRID FRONTS

BERKELEY (AP) — Fullbacks Johnny Graves and Jack Jensen whacked the line in mid-season form at University of California football scrimmage yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Thirty-five University of San Francisco players accompanied by Coach Ed McKeever and his staff enplane tonight for Milwaukee and a Saturday game with unbeated, untied Marquette.

MORAGA (AP) — St. Mary's drilled on passing yesterday with Herman Wedemeyer and Bill Van Huitt on the target the most consistently.

PALO ALTO (AP)—After working the Stanford varsity on pass defense in the third straight day of scrimmage, Coach Marchie Schwartz reported his first-stringers were unable to prevent a frosh lineup from completing aerials.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sophomore Quarterback Ray Nagel may be elevated from his third string role when UCLA plays Stanford this week.

LOS ANGELEES (AP)—Loss of left halfback Johnny Naumu, due to a broken arm, may be felt by Southern California Saturday, but Coach Jeff Cravath shouldn't worry too much. He has at least five other left halfbacks, including Don Garlin, Ted Tannehill and Jack Kirby, to throw at Oregon State.

SANTA CLARA (AP) — Bill Sheridan and Dick McConville drew praise for their passing in yesterday's Santa Clara workouts.

Upland Jayhi Touch Team Loses Out 7-0

The Upland junior high school's touch football squad dropped a close 7-0 decision to a strong San Dimas team yesterday afternoon when their opponent's scored on a 30-yard pass on the last play of the game, for their first defeat in three games.

The seventh and eighth graders, playing at San Dimas, fought the opposing team to a standstill twice on their own five-yard line.

This afternoon the jayhi's varsity travels to Chino to face a strong California Junior Republic aggregation. The Red Raiders are out for blood, having lost their first two games this season.

Ineligibiity Of Christensen Blow To Tigers

The stumbling block of scholastic deficiencies has bumped end Fred Christensen out of his starting berth with the Chaffey Tigers against Redlands.

Coach Truck Lindsey made that announcement yesterday, adding: "He has five days to make up those grade points. If he doesn't he'll be out for the season."

Tuesday, Lindsey had announced Christensen's promotion to a starting berth from the second string. But as things stand now, Bob Garton and Dick Noble will be the wingmen at Friday's kickoff.

Speedy Henry Marquez, the only Tiger back able to run consistently against Alhambra, has been promoted to the Chaffey first string, and will team with Cookie Orsburn, Hoyos and Eddie Shippes in the starting backfield.

Shippes, heretofore a starter only on defense, will be the full-time signal barker, with Ray Mallory relegated to the subs.

Herbert Johnson, who opened the season at tackle, is back at that slot once more, while Jerry Gonce has returned to the second team ranks.

The Redlands Terriers, Friday's opponent in the Tigers' CBL opener, haven't scored a point on anyone to date, and have been pretty badly whipped in every outing.

But Lindsey isn't taking them lightly.

Chaffey Sophs Play Today

Final prep for their season's opener this afternoon on their home field with the Redlands eleven was held yesterday by Coach Karl Kaiser's Chaffey high sophomores.

Still smarting from defeats handed them by the Excelsior and Alhambra "B" squads the Chaffey boys are set to dish it out now that they are facing equal competition in the Citrus Belt league.

Although the squad lost two of his most promising prospects, Bill Casler of Upland jayhi's undefeated '46 squad and halfback Leon Sellers, to the varsity, Kaiser will still place a strong team on Graber field at 3 o'clock today.

NEW YORK—Lewis A. Fonseca, former manager of the Chicago White Sox and now director of promotion for the major leagues, is busy splicing another baseball hit. It's the sound motion picture produced annually for the kids of the country.

"The picture," says Lew, "will show all the important catches and many of the big basehits in the recent World Series between the Yankees and Dodgers. About the only catch we missed was Tommy Henrich's grand grab of Gene Hermanski's line drive on the Ebbets Field wall in the fourth game."

That was the one-hitter that the Brooks won, thanks to Cookie Lavagetto's double, from Bill Bevens.

Fonseca used four cameras to film the Series.

The history-making catch that will be the cynosure of all eyeing the picture is the 415-foot Joe DiMaggio drive hauled down by Al Gionfriddo in the sixth game in Yankee Stadium. Fonseca's crew had plenty of time to shoot this catch for when Gionfriddo caught the ball DiMaggio was on second base. The picture undoubtedly will show the ball plopping in and out of GI's outstretched glove. That's the way it looked from the press box, 500 feet away.

"We shot 25,000 feet to get the Series this year," says Fonseca. "Cutting the picture down to 3,000 feet is the real headache. It will be a half hour show. The picture we took last fall when the Cardinals beat the Red Sox attracted an audience of 10,000,000."

Fonseca also has come up with some shots which should please embryo pitchers. He has taken two top pitchers from each league and filmed their pitching technique in slow motion.

The hurlers are Ewell Blackwell, brilliant 22-game sophomore winner for the Cincinnati Reds, and Harry (The Cat) Brecheen of the Cardinals in the National League and Bob Feller of the Cleveland Indians and Hal Newhouser of the Detroit Tigers for the American League. Brecheen and Newhouser should interest southpaw throwers.

HAND OF 'SLINGING SAMMY' BAUGH SCULPTURED IN DEATHLESS BRONZE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Now future generations can see for themselves exactly what the hand of a topflight football thrower should look like.

Sammy Baugh's right mitt has been sculptured.

George Preston Marshall, owner of the Washington Redskins and Baugh's employer, called in the press yesterday for a look at this deathless work.

"Look at those fingers," said Marshall. "Note how long they are. Also note how strong each finger is, especially the middle finger. Is it any wonder he's the top passer in the world today?"

MRS. ASPER WINS

Dividend Day Ends; Replaced By 'Parade Of Gifts' This Saturday

"Dividend Day", a popular Upland store-sponsored merchandising program, has ended.

A majority of the participating firms, which for more than five years has offered special attractions for Saturday shoppers, today announced the long-established plan was being dropped.

And so Mrs. Rueben Asper, 746 North Second avenue, is recorded as the last winner of the dividend offering. She was awarded $49 Monday in accordance with the plan. Her address was selected from the community residential directory and she had the necessary sales slips to qualify her for the award. Mrs. Asper is a previous winner and her faithfulness and regularity in buying at the participating stores paid off.

Gift Parade

Instead of the "Dividend Day" Many of the Upland firms are participating in what has been termed a "Parade of Gifts", the first award in which will be offered at 2:30 p. m. Saturday.

All customers of the participating stores are eligible to receive money in the "Parade of Gifts" plan. With each purchase, customers will be given numbered tickets, one ticket at the rate of $1 for each purchase. These numbered tickets will be deposited in a container in each store during each week. Just prior to the drawing, all the tickets will be assembled in a master container.

Drawings will be made from this master container and holders of the numbered tickets selected will be given orders, cashable at their face value in purchase of merchandise.

Saturday Awards

Following are the first week's awards:

Holder of the first ticket drawn, $100; holder of second ticket drawn, $50 holder of third ticket, $25; holder of fourth and fifth tickets, each $10, and holder of sixth ticket, $5.

Drawings will be conducted every Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Upland business district, under the personal direction of Andrew Morrison, secretary-manager of the Upland chamber of commerce. Total of approximately $2,500 will be offered in awards during the next 10 weeks. A major prize is scheduled to be offered as the last award.

All tickets issued throughout the campaign will be of value for use in determining the major prize winner.

NATIONAL GUARD

Plan Intensive Training For Upland Medical Group Starting Tuesday

The Upland medical detachment of the 224th Infantry regiment, California National Guard, which was activated in Federal recognition ceremonies Tuesday night in the temporary armory at Chaffey college, will begin an intensive training program, according to its commander, Capt. Hershel E. Griffin.

The training problem of the Upland unit arises from the fact that of 22 men only two have had previous military experience, Capt. Griffin said.

Therefore immediate steps must be taken beginning with next Tuesday night's drill, to train the men in basic military procedure. As soon as the company has received its military drill a training program in basic medical principles will begin.

Long-range plans of the Upland detachment plans for each man, no matter what his military duties, to acquire a thorough training of first aid, treatment of shock, and other medical information, according to Griffin.

Present at the activation were Col. Upson, representing Sixth Army headquarters; Col. Anson J. Smalley, commander of the 224th Infantry regiment, and his staff, and a delegation of Upland city officials and civic leaders headed by Mayor Eugene G. Nisbet.

Effective with the activation members of the medical detachment will receive Federal pay and should receive their uniforms by Nov. 1, according to Capt. John Freeman, regimental adjutant.

Place Handicapped On Various Jobs

Fourteen referrals and nine placements were made at the Ontario office, California State Employment service, as the result of a concerted effort to place handicapped workers during National Employ the Physically Handicapped week.

Employment officials also believe that many employers also hired handicapped workers who were not referred by the service. Employers are still urged to contact the employment service, however, since over 60 registered handicapped workers desiring employment are now without work.

Dolly Newport is making us all green with envy telling about her coming trip to England. Dolly, who lives in Fontana, will leave the halls of dear old Chaffey Oct. 18 and travel with her parents to New York. From there she sails on the Mauriana to England, where she will visit relatives. She expects to return in December aboard the liner Queen Mary. Just the thought of all the homework and hours of cramming she'll be missing is enough to make us wish we were sailing along with Dolly. Bon voyage!

In a heated election last Thursday the juniors chose their class officers. Those elected were: Bill Cambio, president; Betty Frankes, vice-president; Betty Waid, treasurer, and Shirley Imbach, secretary.

Inter Nos, the sophomore Latin club, held its first meeting October 6. Sam Frank was elected Counsel and lead the meeting. The main feature was a play entitled "Off With His Head". It concerned a poor boy struggling to learn Latin, with whom we all certainly sympathized. Just to prove itself helpful the "dead language" came to life and tried to set the bewildered student straight as to conjugations, declinsions, etc.

We're all glad to hear that Louis Ammanito's broken leg is healing rapidly. Louie's leg was broken in the sophomore football game against Excelsior last October 3. It still pains him quite a lot, so for the time being he's going to have a private teacher at home. His sister Flora reports that there's always a gang of kids there to cheer him up and autograph his cast. Three cheers for Louie and the best of luck!

Complete Plans For Art Dinner

Artists and friends will gather with members of the Chaffey Community Art association at their annual exhibit dinner in the Chaffey dining room at 6:30 Saturday evening before formally opening the seventh annual purchase-prize exhibit. Reservations are in charge of Earl H. Johnson, treasurer of the association.

Kenneth Ross, art critic of the Pasadena Star-News, and Conrad Buff, artist whose picture "Grand Canyon" hangs in the Barbara Line collection, are the speakers announced by Mrs. A. R. Neilson, program chairman. Mr. Ross and Mr. Buff have both spoken before the group before.

An event of the dinner is the short history of the organization reviewed by one of its founders, Francis R. Line, who, with his wife, founded the association seven years ago. Mrs. Line is to introduce the visiting artists. Officers of the association will also be introduced.

Dr. Frederick Hard, president of Scripps college, is master of ceremonies. Dr. Hard has been a member of the Chaffey organization since his appointment at Scripps.

Decorations of unusual color and arrangement are being arranged by Mrs. W. B. Rundle and her committee. Mrs. Forrest Doucette is general chairman for the dinner.

Library Names New Officers

At a breakfast meeting yesterday morning, members of the staff of the Ontario public library named new officers. Miss Mary Waldapfel will serve as president, with Mrs. Louise Chetney to act as secretary.

At a business meeting presided over by Mrs. Charles Gros, retiring president, the signature system of checking out books was discussed and the decision made to ask patrons to sign their full names. Use of the first initial and the last name had proved confusing in some cases, they explained.

A bookshelf containing books of interest to parents has been arranged, according to Miss Alberta Schaefer, librarian, who also announced that the League of Women Voters Trends was now available in the reading room.

In charge of the breakfast were Mrs. Chetney and Mrs. Russell Willingham, and others attending were Miss Margaret Hamilton, Mrs. Donald Wake, Mrs. Gros, Miss Schaefer, Miss Waldapfel, Mrs. Paul Jakway, and Mrs. Louise Schaefer.

Library Club Plans Meeting

With Haldeman House as the setting, members of the San Antonio library club and library officials of Southern California will gather for a meeting and luncheon Saturday.

B. J. Caldwell, Pomona, is in charge of the program which will include a panel discussion with John Henderson, chief librarian of the Los Angeles county free public library, as moderators. Problems of public, college and school libraries will be brought up in the discussion.

Panel members are Harold L. Hamilton, Los Angeles public library, Albert C. Lake, Riverside; Eugene D. Hart, Glendale; Donald Davidson, Santa Barbara; Howard Rowe, Santa Barbara; John Paul Stone, San Diego state college, and Willis Kerr, Claremont colleges librarian.

The morning program beginning at 10 o'clock will be followed by a noon luncheon. The event is the annual fall meeting of the group and will be attended by Mrs. Geo. West, president, Upland librarian, and Mrs. F. H. Manker, former Upland librarian, as well as representatives of the Ontario library.

Training Classes For Brownies Start

Opening session in a series of training classes for Brownie Scout leaders was held Tuesday with Mrs. Evelyn Loch, executive director, as instructor of the class.

Among the matters brought up for discussion included the top records and the methods of keeping records. At the close of the discussion, coffee and donuts were served.

Those attending included the Mesdames Helen Gaffney, Lyle Abernathy, Laurence Elliott, Alma Polk and James Pinney, all of Ontario; Allen Smith, Marie Curnett, E. A. Kellam and S. M. Smiley, Upland; Mary Meyer, Etiwanda; Clarence Gray, Camp Baldy; J. R. Walker, Levi Hirschler and Emily Gill, Cucamonga, and Alice Henderson and Victor Perdew, Alta Loma.

Take Vending Machi Headlights Taken

George Cardin, 902 Ontario boulevard, reported the theft of a peanut-gum vending machine from his store at that address yesterday.

Take Second Degree: At Chino I.O.O.F.

John H. Sturgeon and Edward J. Mentzel, new initiates into the Odd Fellows of Upland, were taken to Chino last night for the second degree of the order.

At the Odd Fellows meeting on Tuesday night, members were entertained by a 15-minute practice drill by Captain Freeman's team.

John McCarty, head of the Upland lodge, announced that the venison steak pot-luck dinner scheduled for Oct. 23 has been postponed. A hot chili dinner will be served to members at next Tuesday's meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall.

Stolen Automobile Quickly Recovered

An automobile was stolen in the 100 block on East B street last night, and recovered two hours later near Bon View avenue and State street, Ontario police reported this morning.

Euclid motors, 511 North Euclid avenue, reported the loss. Police said the car had been parked at the curb with the ignition key inside.

Grant Variance For Apartment

Ontario city planners Monday approved a variance request by C. E. Mittleberger, thereby clearing the way—pending council approval—for a $50,000 two-story apartment at Euclid avenue and H street.

Mr. Mittleberger asked for a 21-foot setback, instead of the 30 feet specified in ordinances.

In other actions, the commission set Nov. 10 as the hearing date on rezoning Vine avenue between State and California for commercial purposes; granted Ralph V. Marks permission to use silver maple trees on streets in his new subdivision and referred to City Manager Harold Martin a request from the Southern California Gas Co. for removal of height restrictions on gas tanks to be erected at two city locations.

Despite the high prices asked for downtown lots, the commission is making progress in the matter of securing sites for off-street parking.

That assertion was made by the city manager in response to a request for information by Joseph G. Kelley, representing the Ontario chamber of commerce.

Two Hurt In Accidents Here

Cars driven by Walter Thomas Dow, 38, San Bernardino and Violet Nadine Foster, Pomona, collided Tuesday at C street and Euclid avenue, Ontario, with minor damage resulting.

In another minor collision, Jimmy Caldwell, 10, 512 East Fourth street, a bike rider, was struck by a car driven by Floyd Russell Atchison, 25, on West B street about 5:45 p.m.

Atchison said he was driving at a slow rate of speed when the bike suddenly darted from the alley. The Caldwell boy suffered only minor bumps.

William Strain, 26, 304 East I street, Ontario, had a fractured finger as a result of an accident on Fourth street, San Antonio physicians reported yesterday. He was dismissed from the hospital following treatment.

Local Ministers Attend Special Church Meeting

Eight local men were among those in attendance at a special meeting of the Church of Christ officials held Monday afternoon and evening in Santa Ana.

More than 100 ministers and elders of the church from San Diego to Fresno attended the meeting, which featured discussions led by Floyd Thompson of Santa Ana and Ernest Beam of Long Beach.

Local men attending were Lloyd E. Ellis, minister of the Upland church; Arthur McCann and Albert Hamilton, elders; Marvin R. Tate and S. E. Witty, officials of the Children's Home in Ontario; Homer A. Bartlett and Harold Houchen of Ontario, and Seth E. Rehkop, minister of the Pomona church.

ROOSTER KILLED AFTER DESTROYING NEIGHBOR'S SLEEP

SAN BRUNO (AP)—Edward Hay complained to police he couldn't sleep because Erwin Scholz' rooster crowed all night.

Sgt. Russ Cunningham and officer Jack Kane called on Scholz the next morning. He was busy picking a fowl.

"I just killed that rooster," Scholz said. "He kept me awake all night, too."

Plan Senior Scout Troops

Girls in Chaffey high school may soon have the opportunity to participate in Girl Scout activities, according to Mrs. Lewis Ayles, chairman of the troop organization committee.

Limiting factor in the immediate formation of scout troops at high school is the lack of leaders, according to Mrs. Ayles. Any women who are interested in young people and in outdoor activities, aviation, crafts, home-making, or any other of the ten fields of Girl Scout activity, whether they have had previous Girl Scout experience or not are asked to contact Mrs. Ayles, 623-440, or the Scout house in Upland.

Miss Helen Greenlaw, physical education instructor at the high school, will participate in the formation of troops and the direction of troop activities.

Forfeits Bail, Fail To Appear In City Court

Bail of $250 was forfeited Tuesday by Charles Shipley Kays, 206 East G street, Ontario, when he failed to appear in Upland city court to answer a drunk driving charge.

City Judge Mildred Puckett in declaring the bail forfeited explained that under the California Vehicle Code a bail forfeiture is equivalent to a guilty plea.

Kays, arrested early Sunday when he failed to make a boulevard stop at Foothill and Euclid avenues, still faces revocation of his driver's license by the highway department.
